Purpose of Proxy

Due to the current Coronavirus pandemic and the restriction on travel, public gathering and social distancing, the shareholder is strongly advised to appoint the Chairman of the Company as her/his/its proxy.

Completing the Proxy Form

Identity

A shareholder wishing to appoint a proxy can either (a) nominate the Chairman of the Meeting or (b) any other person. If the shareholder is desirous of nominating and appointing any other person, the full name, address and Identity Card number must be filled up clearly and legibly in the space provided.

Corporate Shareholders

Where the shareholder is a body corporate, including a company, a partnership, an association of persons, a foundation or other entity, a form of proxy must be duly executed (whether in favour of the Chairman of the Meeting or another representative of the Shareholder) in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles or similar constitutional documents of the entity. The Office of the Company Secretary reserves the right to request evidence of the aforesaid.

Joint Shareholders

In the case of joint holders (with the exception of husband and wife), only the first-named holder on the Register of Members shall be entitled to join and vote at the Meeting unless a proxy in the joint names of more than one person has been received by the Company in the ordinary course of receipt of proxies.

A single representative of a joint shareholding, who is not the first-named on the register, will only be eligible to join and vote at the Meeting if a Form of Proxy has been duly executed in his/her favour by all other joint shareholders.

In the case of shares held jointly by husband and wife, either or both of them, may join the Meeting provided that: (a) Irrespective of whether both the husband and the wife join the Meeting, only one of them shall be entitled to vote and; (b) If they wish to appoint a proxy, the Form of Proxy must be signed and executed by both husband and wife.

Voting preference

A shareholder can either (a) specify how the proxy is to vote or (b) leave the voting at the discretion of the proxy.

If the shareholder wishes to specify how the proxy is to vote, the shareholder has to indicate his voting preference by using a mark/cross under either the 'For' or 'Against' columns.

If the shareholder places a mark/cross under both "For" and "Against" column for the same resolution, such vote for that particular resolution will be deemed to be invalid.

If the proxy form is returned without an indication as to how the proxy is authorized to vote on any particular resolution, the proxy will exercise his discretion as to whether, and if so how he votes.

Disclosure by proxy in terms of Listing Rules 12.29 & 12.30

A proxy is to disclose to the shareholder who appointed him/her any facts of which he/she is aware and which may be relevant for the Shareholder in assessing any risk that the proxy holder might pursue any interest other than the interest of the Shareholder. In particular, a proxy holder is required to disclose to the Shareholder:

1) whether the proxy holder is a Director of the Company or of a controlling shareholder of the Company or of an entity controlled by the Company (as may be applicable);

2) whether the proxy holder is an employee or an auditor of the Company or an employee or an auditor of a controlling shareholder of the Company or an entity controlled by the Company (as may be applicable);

3) whether the proxy holder has a family relationship with a natural person who is:

i) a controlling shareholder of the Company or of an entity controlled by the Company (as may be applicable); or

ii) a director of the Company, or of a controlling shareholder of the Company or of an entity controlled by the Company (as may be applicable); or

iii) an employee or an auditor of the Company or of a controlling shareholder of the Company or of an entity controlled by the Company (as may be applicable).

Where the Shareholder is appointing the Chairman of the Meeting as proxy, the Chairman of the Meeting is declaring to the Shareholder that:

i) he is not a controlling shareholder of the Company;

ii) he is not an auditor of the Company;

iii) he does not have a family relationship with a natural person who is a controlling shareholder of the Company, a director, an employee or an auditor of the Company or of a controlling shareholder of the Company or of an entity controlled by the Company; and

iv) he is an employee and a director of the Company.
