Voting Instructions

By order of the Chairman, voting on the resolutions will be by a poll.

Voting by inserting number of votes (equivalent to the number of shares held)

The total number of votes held may be applied to each and every resolution.

The number of votes held may be split up in any ratio whatsoever in favour or against any resolution. To amplify, a shareholder may, if such a shareholder decides to vote, utilise all or part of the votes for each resolution and in any manner the shareholder desires. What has to be borne in mind is that on no account may a shareholder use more votes than the shareholder is entitled to. If this occurs, the shareholder's vote on that particular resolution will be invalid.

A shareholder may use part of the vote to vote 'FOR' a particular resolution and use the remaining votes (or part of them) to vote 'AGAINST' the same resolution. Such a vote will be valid as long as the shareholder does not exceed the total number of votes the shareholder is entitled to.

Voting by placing a mark

The use of a cross or a mark (instead of putting a number of votes) in the appropriate space on the ballot paper under either 'FOR' or 'AGAINST' will be interpreted to mean that the shareholder has assigned all the votes either 'FOR' or 'AGAINST' the resolution as the case may be. A cross or a mark placed in both 'FOR' and 'AGAINST' for the same resolution renders the shareholder's vote on that particular resolution invalid.

Any resolution not voted for on the ballot paper will be treated as an abstention.

Appointment of a Proxy

Every shareholder is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and, if the shareholder so wishes, to vote on the shareholder's behalf.

A shareholder may appoint a proxy and mark the box authorising the proxy to vote as the appointed proxy wishes. In this case, the shareholder must not put any mark whatsoever in the boxes reserved for voting, as otherwise this voting preference will be treated as superseding the conflicting instruction that the appointed proxy is to vote as he/she/it wishes and the Form of Proxy itself will be registered as a pre-voted proxy.

A shareholder may appoint the Chairman as his/her/its proxy and mark the box specifying how the appointed proxy is to vote. In this case, the shareholder MUST vote for each resolution the shareholder wishes to vote upon. Any resolution not voted on the Form of Proxy will be treated as an abstention and will not be available for the appointed proxy to vote at the Meeting.

Each proxy holder will be given only ONE ballot paper, which will include the total of ALL votes to which he is entitled.

Voting for Directors

Pursuant to Article 56.4 of the Articles of Association of the Company, since there are less nominations than are vacancies, no election will take place and the nominees are automatically appointed Directors.

Draft Resolutions and Documents

The draft resolutions to be considered and voted upon at the meeting are included as an integral part of this notice. The full unabridged text of any documents submitted to the meeting shall be available at the registered office of the Company and on www.rs2.com.

A copy of this notice together with all documents and information required by Capital Market Rule 12.11 are available at www.rs2.com.

Right to ask questions

Every shareholder shall have the right to ask questions which are pertinent and related to items on the agenda of the Annual General Meeting and to have such questions answered by the Directors or such person as the Directors may delegate for that purpose subject to any reasonable measures that the Company may take to ensure the identification of the shareholder.

If they desire, shareholders may either send the questions in writing either at RS2 Software p.l.c, RS2 Buildings, Fort Road, Mosta MST1859, Malta or to agm@rs2.com by Friday 9 June 2023, or alternatively may ask questions during the meeting.

The said right shall also be enjoyed by a proxy holder appointed by the shareholder.

We may provide one overall answer to questions having the same content.

Whilst every effort will be made to provide an answer to all questions raised, an answer to a question asked is not required where:

- a) to give an answer would interfere unduly with the preparation for the AGM, involve the disclosure of confidential information or cause prejudice to the business interests of the Company;
- b) the answer has already been given on the Company's website in the form of an answer to a question;
- c) it is not in the interests of good order of the Meeting that the question be answered; or
- d) the Company is unable to provide an immediate reply, provided that such reply is subsequently posted on the Company's website.
